Great House Hotel Wedding Contract

Terms & Conditions, Standard Terms & Conditions.

1. Confirmations

Bookings will be treated as provisional until the signed contract (the confirmation) together with a non-refundable, transferable £1000.00 deposit is returned by the client, which should be within 7 days of the original booking. Failure to do so, Great House reserves the right to cancel the function. The client must tell Great House in writing the final numbers of guests attending not less than 28 days prior to the function. The amount payable by the client will be calculated on that final number or the number who actually attend, whichever is greater.

2. Payments

Four weeks before the wedding an invoice will be issued for the total. Settlement of this is required. Failure to do so, Great House reserves the right to cancel the wedding/function. Any additional costs must be settled before departure

3. Postponements

Postponements must be put in writing to the Venue outside of the cancellation periods below. Your initial deposit will be transferred to the new date however an additional deposit of £500 will also be required to secure the new date.

4. Cancellations

Should you have to cancel your booking; a charge will be made, calculated as a percentage of the total booking value, according to the scale highlighted below:

From 3-6 months prior to the event	30% charge.
Between 1-3 months prior to the event	50% charge.
Within 1 month	100% charge.

Any costs incurred for a particular event, that otherwise would not have been incurred; will be charged in the event of cancellation unless Great House are able to mitigate their loss. The client should confirm all cancellations in writing.

This contract may be cancelled by Great House by giving 1 months written notice and the return of the deposit and any further monies paid

The Great House recommends that you consider Wedding Insurance to cover costs in the event of unforeseen cancellation

5. Confirmation/Reduction in Numbers

The Great House reserves the right to set a minimum number to be charged for the event. Approximate number of guests will be provided in writing at the time of booking. It is this number that will act as the minimum number of guests to be paid for. Any reduction in numbers in the last 28 days prior to the event will be charged at 50% of the agreed individual rate, unless the minimum number to be charged is applicable.

6. Food and Beverages

Evening buffets must be ordered for the total number of guests attending an evening function. We do not allow the wedding cake to be served as the dessert during the main meal but can accompany coffee or the evening buffet.

Wine, spirits and beers may not be brought onto the premises for consumption by clients or their guests. The use of "miniatures" as wedding favours can be permitted but limited to one per person along with Edible Favours.

Great House Hotel Wedding Contract

Terms & Conditions, Standard Terms & Conditions.

7. Damage

The client is responsible to The Great House Hotel for damage caused by the client, or their guests, agents, employees etc.

8. Theft

The Great House Hotel is not liable for any loss or damage to guest's belongings or personal property within the Hotel property no matter how the loss or damage was caused. Guests are responsible for their safe keeping of their own property and should keep their belongings with them and under their own control always.

The hotel is licenced until midnight. All music must end promptly at midnight.

All information and prices are correct at the time of printing but are subject to legislative changes (VAT etc.) and may be changed without prior notice.

Great House Hotel does not accept liability for any errors or omissions.

The Great House hotel is a listed building located within a conservation area for this reason the use of biodegradable and non bio degradable confetti is not permitted with the exception of dried natural flowers. We urge you to communicate this to your guests prior to the day as failure to do so will result in a contamination charge of £250.00 being applied.
